to whom it may concern:

it gives me great pleasure to introduce "the mystic christ" by ethan walker iii.

the store that my wife, sarah, and i have created is best categorized as somewhere between a metaphysical store, a spiritual library and gift-shop, and a mainstream religious supply. our customer base includes buddhist and hindu temples, christian churches, synagogues, and many of those that you might expect to find participating in functions at these houses of the spirit.

while books are not our large draw, we have enjoyed a great deal of success from mr. walker's book, having outsold, by a margin of 3:1, every other title that we regularly stock.

our current book selection is comprised of titles from shambhalla press, mcgraw, sounds true, stuart, gaiam, ko-sei, middle path books and many others. we are proud to add devi press to that list, and look forward to continued success from their titles.

should you have any questions about our store or our impression of "the mystic christ" or mr. walker.

in peace,

RUSTIN
